

I believe that as a paying listener we should be able to listen to whatever we want to. A lot of times radio reception is not readily available on the outskirts of a particular traffic area, so therefore the statellite radio is the only way to hear about traffic. Also, XM radio does not have 30 minutes of commercials and 5 minutes of traffic updates, like other traffic and news channels do.